

Taste the Flavor on an Overnight Trip

Day One

Start your "flavorful" tour of Darke County, Ohio at the KitchenAid Stand Mixer Factory in Greenville. Enjoy an escorted walking tour through the history of the number one stand mixer in the world, and go through the factory watching over the associates shoulders as they craft this beloved kitchen icon. Once you've watched as this product is "made in the U.S.A." travel to downtown Greenville to the KitchenAid Experience Center to roll up your sleeves and get baking! Explore the largest display of KitchenAid portable appliances. Browse through antique KitchenAid memorabilia in the heritage museum and purchase products at factory-direct prices. Enjoy lunch at any of the downtown eateries , including The Merchant House. No visit to Darke County or even Western Ohio is complete without a stroll through history at the Garst Museum. Learn about the Treaty of Greenville, which opened the door to the Northwest Territory. Legendary sharp-shooter Annie Oakley was born and raised in these parts. All the details and more can be found in the county's largest museum. Complete your first day in Darke County at Michael Anthony's at the Inn voted 2017 Ohio's Best Fine Dining. Here you can enjoy authentic, old world style European cuisine. When you have decided to call it a day be sure to stay at The Inn at Versailles for a relaxing taste of the Old World with The Inn's beguiling mix of imposing architecture, intriguing works of art, and its warm and embracing décor. Each of the 23 rooms offer their own personality and ambiance and will be sure to please.

Day Two

For your final day in Darke County (until next time), one can't leave without visiting Bear's Mill. Built in 1849, this water powered flour mill is an authentic example of a stone grinding mill of its time and is still in use today. Enjoy history, nature and culture at this treasured gem. Explore the grounds, tour the Mill and enjoy the "Art at the Mill" series featuring monthly gallery shows and receptions for local artists. Grab a bite to eat for lunch at The Bistro Off Broadway. Enjoy a unique menu of time-tested Midwest inspired recipes in a casual, jazz-theme environment brimming with 20th century memorabilia. Next head over to Shawnee Prairie Preserve, located just west of Greenville. This 118-acre preserve is the largest Darke County park. Enjoy a leisurely walk through trails showcasing the three habitats of this park: woodlands, wetlands and prairies. Also found at Shawnee Prairie is the Nature Center, sugar shack, a natural play area for children and an 18th century Log House and blacksmith shop. After exploring the great outdoors be sure to stop at Maid-Rite Sandwich Shoppe, an American diner with a full offering of menu items to satisfy a variety of palates, before heading home.
